To whom it may concern,

TESTIMONIAL FOR DIDO PANAGIOTOPOULOS

Mrs. Dido Panagiotopoulos, I.D number 691022 0129 088, has been known to me for the past 5 months where she is employed at Meridian Cosmo City (managed by Curro Holdings) as a Grade 8 and 9 educator, teaching English Home Language as well as Creative Arts.

With conviction I can testify the following:

Mrs. Panagiotopoulos began her employment with Curro Meridian Cosmo City in May 2017. While Mrs. Panagiotopoulos impressed the School Management Team with her creative approach to lesson planning during her interview, her strengths also include: effective and timely communication, high efficiency in meeting deadlines, tenacity and empathy in managing learner discipline, foresight and vision in planning school activities as well as attention to detail.

Mrs. Panagiotopoulos has brought stability to a very challenging area of concern in the school with her professionalism and exceptional work ethic. She has proven herself to be a valued and respected educator, colleague and mentor. She always goes beyond the call of duty, not only for her students but also with extra and co-curricular activities. Mrs. Panagiotopoulos have numerous high valued skills which reinforces her competency to deliver innovative and stimulating lessons. Her tolerance and compassion is valued by her learners and colleagues alike. She completed various courses, including but not limited to Counselling courses at Childline, Lifeline and Children's Foundations which gives her the rare ability to mentor, motivate and support students suffering from various socio-economic and psychological difficulties.

Mrs. Panagiotopoulos can see gaps in a plan or process, and raise pertinent questions in order to work towards a better way of working. She systematically approaches tasks and assures the success thereof.

As the school currently can only offer Mrs. Panagiotopoulos employment on a contract basis, and she wish to seek permanent employment, I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending her for any position she applies for. She has truly proven herself to be committed to her professional task. The school wish her success and fulfilment in all her future endeavours.

Yours in Education,

Mr. I. J. Rossouw
